Duty to prevent sexual harassment

The Ritz London is dedicated to ensuring a safe and respectful environment for both our esteemed guests and our valued employees. We work to prevent sexual harassment and expect all guests, including dining and hotel guests, vendors; suppliers and contractors to treat our team and others respectfully. This includes, but is not limited to, inappropriate comments, gestures or physical contact.

Any third-party persons found to be engaging in such behaviour will face immediate consequences, which may include expulsion from the premises, or further actions.

We are committed to supporting any victims of harassment. If you experience or witness any inappropriate behaviour, please report it to our management team immediately. All reports will be handled with respect, upmost care and confidentiality.
